U.S. BANKRUPTCY COURT

In re
City of Detroit,
Debtor

Chapter 9
Case No. 13-53846
Hon.: Steven W. Rhodes

Creditor Dennis Taubitz in Support and in Opposition of Motion of the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit to Designate and Determine Additional Legal Issues Regarding Methodology for ASF Recoupment from Retirees

Creditor Dennis Taubitz, without waiving any objections he has against the Debtor's Plan of Adjustment and its attempt to steal monies from retirees, files this response both in support and in opposition to the Motion filed by the General Retirement System.

Creditor agrees with the General retirement System that the Debtor has no legal or moral basis for treating retirees different than employees. Employees are allowed to pay a lump sum while retirees are not, and the retirees are charged an exorbitant interest. Unfortunately, this is consistent with the Debtor's practice during the course of this litigation.

Creditor further submits that there is no legal basis for Debtor attempting to assess interest when Debtor fails to allow for lump sum payment.

Further, Debtor has failed to set forth any legal basis for its attempted theft of retiree and employees' funds.

Further, Creditor submits that the General retirement System has failed to establish that the issue is a discretionary legal issue that should be similarly resolved independent of and prior to the Plan confirmation trial.

WHEREFORE, Creditor Dennis Taubitz requests that the Motion of the General Retirement System be held in abeyance and resolved at the Confirmation hearing.

Respectfully submitted,
